WANT ME TO GIVE YOUR GROUP A TALK ON 'WRITING FOR MAGAZINES'?

Hi! I am a 66-year-old disabled part-time writer living and writing in Langley, Berkshire. I have had around 50 articles published in 20 UK & US leisure and lifestyle magazines. I began writing in 1996 after being forced to retire from my career at St. Thomas' Hospital in London due to ill health. I am 'self-taught' and believe that anyone can get factual articles published in magazines by following some simple basic rules.

I now give short talks on 'Writing for Magazines' to small groups, organisations, clubs and societies etc. in East Berkshire and West London.

If you would like further information visit my website at: -

The talk lasts for 45 minutes with 15 minutes for questions.
